Several Enjoyable Social Events Celebrated in That Live City.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

CARBONDALE, Pa., Jan. 26.—A very pleasant time was had this evening in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church, the occasion being the turkey supper under the auspices of the Ladies of that church. They were rewarded for their efforts by a large patronage which resulted in a neat sum of money to swell the treasury.

In Keystone hall this evening was held the thirteenth annual ball of Van Bergen Lodge No. 63, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen. The firemen have earned the reputation of being royal entertainers on many previous occasions and this evening's event was equally as pleasant as any ever held by this organization. Music was given by the Germania orchestra. The attendance was large, and at midnight occurred one of the principal features, the banquet, served under the auspices of the lady friends of the members of the lodge.

The occasion was a social affair with perfect satisfaction regarding their evening's amusement. Among the several social events of the evening was the enjoyable one which occurred in the parlors of the Electric Literary association on the South side. The occasion was a social friendly by the association to their lady friends who so faithfully assisted them in their recent fair. The event was, as all such events usually are, pleasantly enjoyed by the participants.

This morning at 9 o'clock was held in St. Rose church, the funeral services for the remains of the late Katie Mannion, who died on Tuesday at her home on Powderly road. A requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. J. V. Huskie who also preached the funeral sermon. The remains were interred in St. Rose cemetery and the following young men were the pallbearers: John Nealon, W. F. Carden, Patrick Mannion, James Fox and James and John Flannery. The flower bearers were P. F. McCann and Thomas Flannery.

He Proves, However, That No Forgery Had Been Committed.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

STROUBSBURG, Pa., Jan. 26.—E. J. Schwarz, of East Stroubsburg, a prominent dealer in hides, was arrested today at the instance of the East Stroubsburg National bank on the charge of forgery.

It seems that Schwarz, who has been doing business here for the past two years, had loaned during that time $250 to Charles Pickel, taking his note for the amount. One of the notes fell due yesterday, but when it was presented at the bank, Pickel had his indorsement. Schwarz was then arrested by the bank officials.

Pickel evidently failed to recognize his own handwriting, for at the hearing Mr. Schwarz was discharged, after he had proved that the signature was genuine.

OLD FORGE, Pa., Jan. 26.—By a slight misapprehension we announced in our news items, recently, that the caucus to be held in the Sheridan hall was to be a citizen's caucus, it will be a Republican caucus, however which every good Republican will be expected to attend. Owing to his increasing business Mr. Willis has found it necessary to put on another meat wagon.

MASQUERADERS MAKE MERRY.

Masked Dancers While Away the Hours at Pioneer Hall.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

HONESDALE, Pa., Jan. 26.—The masquerade ball given by Professor Hess dancing class last evening was a most pleasing success. The masqueraders began arriving about 9 o'clock and continued coming until the room was well filled with the fantastically arrayed dancers. As is the custom, the garbs and gowns worn were of various designs and colors. The general make-up, however, was more of the beautiful than ludicrous, still there was not lack of variety.

After King Frolic had been ruling for some time the grand march was formed, with Miss Lucy Heft and Percy Cole leading. The unmasking created much merriment. Metzger's orchestra, as usual, furnished excellent music, and the dancers enjoyed themselves well into this morning.

"Bad Spells" with the Heart

Dizzy, Faint, in Despair

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.

"I have suffered very much during the past few years from Heart Trouble.

Physicians said I might live a number of years, might die any day. I could usually tell when the worst attacks were coming on by feeling a sharp pain in the heart, then violent thumping, shortness of breath, followed by a coldness coming all over me, then DIZZINESS, FAINTNESS, and then, unless I could lie down at once I would fall wherever I was. I never dared to get left alone for I had to have help at once and that applied with vigor. I could not do any work, even to sweeping, and had to be careful of the least excitement. I got very much discouraged at the outlook and thought:

There Was No Hope

Of ever finding anything to help me. One day a friend asked, 'Why don't you try Hood's Sarsaparilla? I thought it over and decided to try it, and I thank God for it too. Since I began taking it, three years ago, I have had but one 'bad spell' and that was due to carelessness on my part, and from that I quickly recovered. I can not tell you how much better I feel and how thankful I am. I feel as if I would like to tell every person in the world that I can and do now do all my housework, even to washing."

TORTURING EGZEMA

Editor Iowa Plain Dealer Cured of Insufferable Itching and Pain by the Cuticura Remedies.

No Less Than Five Physicians Consulted. Their Combined Wisdom Followed Without Benefit.

I am sixty-six years old. In August, 1887, was troubled with the peculiar skin disease known to medical men as eczema. Its first appearance was near the ankles. It rapidly extended over the lower extremities until my legs were nearly one raw sore; from legs the trouble extended across the hips, shoulders and the entire length of the arms, the legs and arms greatly swollen with a itching, burning pain, without cessation. Although the best medical advice obtainable was employed, no less than five physicians of the place being consulted and the prescriptions being followed, though apparently checked, would recur in a few days as bad as ever; during its progress my weight fell away about twenty-five pounds. As an experiment I began the use of CUTICURA, following the simple and plain instructions given with the Remedies, and in four weeks found myself well, with skin soft and natural in color, the itching and pain entirely relieved.
